

NIEDER

CHIROPRACTIC & REHABILITATION

For Immediate Release:

December 14, 2016

We are currently in search of a Functional Medicine Physician (DC or MD) / Clinical Nutritionist to obtain a rental space opportunity and to be included in our “Integrated Performance Center” in Harrisonburg, VA. Our vision is to add to our multidisciplinary center that will include massage therapy, personal training, and chiropractic/rehabilitative services in order to improve the service level to our community and continue to expand our niche in the area as the “go to” clinic for health performance. Please send resume/questions to functionalchiro@verizon.net

Thank you for your consideration,

Dr. Todd Nieder, DC
