

Independent Contractor Position Available in Indianapolis, IN

Established northwest Indianapolis office has a position open for the right doctor as an independent contractor. The office is located just north of the busy Trader's Point shopping center, and a few miles south of Zionsville. The area is saturated with local industry, retail, and residential. Perfect opportunity for a new grad or anyone wanting to go out on their own without the risk of a long-term commercial lease. Candidate must be prolific in motion palpation with solid adjusting skills, and carry a high level of integrity. Please send an email to icchiroposition@gmail.com and tell us why you should be considered.